

HAYAL 62

HAYAL 62, a stunning trandil launched in October 2008, is available on the luxury charter market offering her guests 3000 years traditional wooden boat craftsmanship and luxurious private getaways along the Mediterranean and Aegean coastline. The yacht hosts a very spacious master cabin located in the forward section with A/C and private bathroom, making her one of the most ideal yachts available in this region for honeymooners who are looking for a very clean yacht with five-star service under an affordable budget. An additional en-suite twin cabin on the port side also makes this sailing yacht a great option for a small family of three or four.
